CCF Edmonton Membership Categories

Membership is open to all culinary and hospitality industry professionals who meet the following criteria.

National Member

Application for national membership requires that you apply to the regional branch in your area (consult national website for details at www.ccfcc.ca). The following criteria for application in this category are:

- The applicant must hold a valid Certificate of Qualification for the Trade of Cook (a TQ5 if trained with the Canadian Armed Forces 1985) or similar certification from any province where applicable, or an equivalent Certificate from any member country of W.A.C.S. or at least 8 years industry experience. You must submit a copy of your certificate with the application.
- You will be required to have been in actual service in the Trade of Cooking or food related industry or an Instructor at an accredited Foodservices or Hospitality Institution.

Canadian Armed Service

This is open to all members of the Canadian Armed Forces whose main course of duty is that of a mess cook, warrant officer or commissioned officer holding a minimum certification of TQ5 or at least 8 years industry experience.

National Junior Member

This category provides for membership during one's apprenticeship or course of study in a food service environment or recognized school of culinary training. The applicant may retain junior membership until he/she has attained certification as a Journeyman after which the member will be invited and required to become a national regular member.
